Wine Attitude

We don't advocate the abandonment of the traditional values. But some of us like alternatives. Some of us need to push the envelope while thinking outside the cutting edge of the box. We don't look askance at those of you who are happy with just one variety in your wines. And we would never snicker or make snide remarks about those of you who are satisfied with two varieties in your blend. We just feel that three is better than one or two. Ménage à Trois examines what happens when you put three attractive, single, young grapes in one exquisite bottle.

Vineyard and Winemaking

This 2014 Rosé is a madcap blend of Merlot, Syrah and Gewürztraminer. Two red grape varietals received a 24-hour cold soak on the skins to give the wine its suggestive pinkness and luscious body. The Gewürztraminer was cold fermented to preserve the exotic spice and naked fruit. No malolactic fermentation here—just fruity, mouth-watering crisp acidity.

Tasting Notes

Our 2014 Ménage à Trois Rosé is the epitome of a good rosé. No pretension, no pretense. Just a fruit-laden roller coaster ride of raspberries, strawberries, lychee nuts and flowers with a silky smooth finish. A medium weighted palate with a cocktail of citrus and tropical fruits.
